

Lynne Bowman Cox, NCC, LPC, MAC, CEAP

Lynne Cox is a Licensed Professional Counselor working in the Employee Assistance Program for Northeast Georgia Health System. In her role as an EAP Counselor, Lynne assists employees and dependent family members with both personal and work-related concerns. She routinely deals with clinical mental health issues, substance abuse, marriage and family problems, domestic and workplace violence, stress management, grief/loss, interpersonal communication and individual work performance improvement needs. In addition, Lynne provides education and training to work groups on a variety of topics related to emotional/behavioral health and the world of work as well as serving as a management consultant in situations involving supervision of troubled employees, workplace trauma, threats of violence and organizational change. Lynne has developed unique skills related to Critical Incident Stress Management, Threat of Violence Consultation and the specialized needs of Healthcare Workers, Law Enforcement and Fire/EMS personnel. She has worked 27 of her 30 years at the Medical Center with the EAP and has served as the point person for EAP contract services to City of Gainesville and Hall County Government for most of that time.